SUNDAY OF ZACCHAEUS

Today, we come to the Sunday of Zacchaeus, the last of the Sundays after Pentecost, and the opening to the new season of repentance and renewal. The goal of this journey is to help us move from the periphery of life where we are often immersed and to come closer to the center, that is, to Christ who is the Truth and Life.

Various models are offered to us along the way.

Zacchaeus is a rich man, a tax collector, a Jew hired by the Roman authorities to collect taxes from his fellow countrymen. He did not realize that he was much of a sinner until he met Jesus. Then his life changed, dramatically.

Jesus said: “I must stay at your house tonight”. When we allow the Lord to come this close to us personally, something happens, and we can change. Much like Zacchaeus.

BLESSING OF HOMES

A very old tradition of our faith is the blessing of homes. Father Vasyl would like to continue this tradition. If you would like your home blessed, please see Father after Liturgy, call the office on Monday mornings, or sign the sheet in the entrance of the church. If you leave your name and telephone number we will call you to arrange the day and time.
