Pray for God's Blessings for a

Happy and Safe 4th of July.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

As you likely are aware, St. Stephens Byzantine Catholic Church will be celebrating our fiftieth year of existence in a few months. Your Parish Advisory Council has been busy planning a spiritual and permanent remembrance to mark the occasion of this milestone in our church's history, inspired by the beautiful icon shrines displayed at Mt. St. Macrina, only smaller.

A specially painted icon of Saint Stephen will be housed in a metal enclosure with a locking glass door, that will be encased in beautiful cut-stone shrine with a shake-style roof. The shrine will include a recessed, bronze, commemorative plaque marking the occasion. We will place the shrine in the area between the rectory and the church and it will be a permanent reminder to everyone of the dedication of the parishioners of St. Stephen since its inception.

Rather than host a dinner that inspires only a fleeting memory, we have chosen to commemorate the dedication of all parishioners in a permanent and everlasting way. The cost to construct the shrine is $10,000 to $12,000. We are asking all parishioners to consider donating to the important milestone in the life of our church. If you are so inspired, please write a check to St. Stephen, and in the memo line indicate that it is for the "Icon Shrine."

The following pictures show the beauty of the inspiration for our shrine. Thanks be to God for the blessings He has bestowed on this congregation.

The parish family offers condolences to the families of Norman Heinack and Arlene Dzura on the passing of their sister, Gloria Miele. Gloria passed away last Saturday. May God grant to his departed servant +Gloria a peaceful repose and eternal memory !
