SUNDAY OF ALL SAINTS

Sunday of All Saints is a week after Sunday of Pentecost. But, why is a series of important Saints being celebrated on that day?

The rationale behind this joint feast is the founding of the Church after the resurrection of Christ followed by the descent of the Holy Spirit. This brought to the world the possibility of man's union with God. Thus, the Church decided that all the Saints throughout time should be celebrated in a common feast on the Sunday immediately after the feasts of Pentecost and Monday of the Holy Spirit.

Sunday of All Saints is a moveable feast that falls 56 days after Easter. This year it is celebrated on 12th of June. On this day we commemorate those who have been sanctified by the Holy Spirit, the Fathers and Patriarchs, the Prophets and Holy Apostles, the Martyrs and the Hierarchs, the Holy Martyrs, the Holy and Righteous and in general the Holy Women and Men that have been sanctified.

On Monday right after Sunday of All Saints begins the fast in honor of the Holy Apostles which ends on 29th June, the feast day of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul (On 30th June we celebrate the 12 Apostles).
